You Can Make a Difference— LEND A HAND!

Wherever you live, you can help children in need learn to read!
Here's how you can LEND A HAND:

Loose Change for Literacy

☺ Great for Kids!

Organize a “Loose Change for Literacy” drive in your community, office, place of worship, school, etc. A little loose change adds up to BIG change for childhood literacy.

- Visit our website at www.sitstayread.org to download information to get started.

Link to Us

Help spread the word about SIT STAY READ and the importance of childhood literacy by adding a link to www.sitstayread.org on your blog or website.

Party with a Purpose

Turn your birthday, wedding or other special occasion into an opportunity to help children learn to read! Instead of gifts, ask your guests to contribute to SSR.

- For more information visit our website at www.sitstayread.org

Publish Our Pooch

Help us publish the book, "A Very Lucky Puppy: Bandit's Story." All proceeds will benefit SSR. Email us at info@sitstayread.org if you can help.

Lather Up For Literacy

☺ Great for kids!

Organize a neighborhood dog wash to benefit SSR. It's fun, easy, and the dogs will love the attention!

Auction on eBay

Auction books, dog-items, or anything else you'd like to get off your hands. You can have all or a portion of sale proceeds go directly to SSR through ebaygivingworks.com.

Start SIT STAY READ in Your City

SSR is currently only in Chicago, but it is our dream to be helping kids in every major city! Email us at info@sitstayread.org to let us know you're interested. We'll add you to our mailing list and will keep you posted on expansion efforts.

Be Creative!

Email us at info@sitstayread.org with ideas of how you'd like to LEND A HAND.
